ALANA Mentoring Program

Loyola University Maryland

The ALANA Mentoring Program (AMP) pairs first-year ALANA students with upper-class students to assist them in acclimating to campus life at Loyola University Maryland. The ALANA Mentors play an integral role in working with students for the first year of their college experience. Mentors will assist first-year students to gain an understanding and appreciation of the University culture, introduce them to co-curricular activities, and assist them with achieving academic and personal growth.

Qualifications:

- Be a full-time undergraduate student at Loyola University Maryland for both fall and spring semesters (students studying abroad cannot be mentors)
- Be able to participate in mandatory Spring and Fall trainings
- Be in good judicial and academic standing (minimum 2.5 GPA)
- Be knowledgeable of campus programs, personnel, policies, and procedures
- Possess good interpersonal skills and illustrate reliability, responsibility and patience
- Be willing to serve as a positive role model and example for new students

Responsibilities:

- Commit to the mission and program objectives of the ALANA Mentoring Program
- Be a team player by working in uniformity with other mentors for duration of program
- After receiving mentee, make initial contact within the first week, and contact your mentees weekly thereafter; thus spending quality time and establishing rapport
- Attend monthly mentor meetings throughout the academic year in order to maintain consistent contact regarding progress of the mentee(s) with ALANA Services
- Participate with mentees in programs sponsored by the ALANA Mentoring Program
- Assist mentees with academic growth
- Encourage mentees to participate in cultural programs and organizations
- Provide moral support to first years in developing a positive attitude towards academic achievement and personal adjustment
- Serve as a liaison between your mentee(s) and ALANA Services
- Perform in the best interest of Loyola University Maryland, serving as a representative of the college by presenting a positive outlook of the overall program

Important non-negotiable Dates:

- Spring Training: Saturday, April 12th, time TBD
- Fall Training: Friday, September 12th, 3-4pm
- AMP Meet & Greet: Friday, September 12th, 4-5pm
- Academic Year: Hour Long Mentor Meetings (two per semester)
