ANNA FREUD

xxxx Therapy Lane Apt #xxx anna@freud.com
Columbia, MD xxxxx xxx-xxx-xxxx

EDUCATION

Loyola University Maryland, Baltimore, MD

- 15 credit Certificate of Advanced Study Program towards Pennsylvania state licensure
- Degree Expected: December 2007

Loyola University Maryland, Baltimore, MD

- M.S. in Counseling Psychology, Practitioner Track
- Degree Received: September 2007
- GPA: 3.80

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA

- B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies, with Children, Youth, and Family Studies Option
- Minor in Psychology
- Degree Received: May 2004

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

MPB Group, Inc., Columbia, MD
Therapist (May 2007 – Present)/Intern (August 2006 – May 2007)

- Provide individual and family therapy to foster children ages 8-18 in an outpatient mental health clinic
- Conduct in-take interviews and outcome measurement surveys with clients
- Formulate client diagnoses, create treatment plans, and maintain client files
- Participate in weekly case presentations and attend client treatment meetings
- Consult with foster care agencies and social workers

Adult, Adolescent, and Child Counseling Associates, Bethesda, MD
Intern (January – April 2004)

- Observed and analyzed therapist and clients during counseling sessions
- Entered client in-take information into computer database
- Carried out administrative duties such as assisting in the editing and revision of office documents, answering telephones, and faxing and typing documents

Mamie D. Lee School, Washington D.C.
Intern (January – April 2004)

- Facilitated weekly "Character Education" activities in an urban setting with clients ages 3-21 with developmental disabilities
- Assisted and observed therapeutic sessions between school counselor and students
- Planned and developed weekly therapeutic activities pertaining to self-esteem and social skills
- Assisted classroom teacher with teaching reading and math lessons to students

Penn State, Psychology Department, University Park, PA
Practicum Participant (September – December 2003)

- Worked directly with middle school children in a rural setting and facilitated activities that targeted adolescents' social and emotional competence
- Developed weekly lesson plans focusing on forming and maintaining friendships
- Led discussions on how to handle conflict, gossip, and teasing

Penn State, Human Development and Family Studies Department, University Park, PA
Volunteer/Participant (June – December 2003)

- Assisted with the College Student Attitudes Project, a longitudinal study that measured attitude and behavior changes across the transition to college
- Facilitated survey data collection sessions and answered participants' questions
- Conducted library research and scored measures of data

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Howard County Recreational Licensed Child Care, Columbia, MD
Director/Group Leader (August 2004 – May 2007)

- Planned and coordinated a well-rounded program of recreational activities including sports, arts and crafts
- Supervised 53 children and maintained current files on each child
- Conducted staff meetings and completed performance reviews on staff members
- Maintained relationships with children, parents, and staff

Howard County Recreation and Parks Camp Reach Out, Columbia, MD
Group Leader (Summers 2004 – 2006)

- Supervised 25 high-risk, school age children
- Planned and led craft, athletic, and group activities daily
- Assisted Director in keeping accurate attendance of 120 children on weekly field trips

TRAINING/SKILLS

- Attended 2007 Maryland Psychological Association Graduate Student Conference
- Attended 2007 Eastern Conference on Child Sexual Abuse Treatment
- CPR and First Aid Certified