INTENT TO LIVE ON CAMPUS

All students are required to declare their Residential Intent. Depending on your answer, you will be directed to the appropriate page.

Intent to Live

All Loyola University Maryland students are required to complete this form to inform the university of their living arrangements for the following academic year. By completing this form, we understand what kind of communication we need to send you in the future.

To learn more about the Intent to Return form, please visit the Returning Student Housing Selection webpage.

Intent to Live On-Campus

Do NOT intend to live on campus for the fall

If you choose "Do NOT intend to live on campus," you will be taken to a page to answer the "living-off campus" questions and, finally, a page to choose a meal plan. This is the end of your application.

This a reminder that first-year students may not live off campus and rent in Baltimore.

Do INTEND to live on campus in the fall

If you choose "Intend to live on campus" you will continue the housing application.

THE HOUSING CONTRACT

The housing contract is a legally binding agreement between the student and the University. It is essential that you read and understand its contents BEFORE you agree to it.

SIGN AND SUBMIT HOUSING CONTRACT

All students must sign and agree to the terms and conditions of the housing contract before they can continue through the application. Information about canceling your contract can be found on page: 33. Once you have read the contract:

- Print or download a copy of the contract.
- Enter your seven digit Student ID number to confirm you agree. Do not include the beginning 00
- Click Save and Continue.

Contract

Please read the contract in its entirety

Reminder that this legally-binding contract is for the entire academic year and goes into effect once signed.

2024-2025 RESIDENCE CONTRACT
LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND
RESIDENCE LIFE & HOUSING

1. PARTIES
A. This Contract is made between the student or prospective student and (if the student is under 18 years of age) their parent, guardian, or guarantor (hereafter referred to collectively as Student), and Loyola University Maryland, Inc. (the University).

2. DURATION AND BINDING NATURE OF THE CONTRACT
A. This Contract will be deemed binding on both parties when the completed and signed (or digitally agreed upon) document is returned to the Loyola University Maryland Office of Residence Life & Housing (Residence Life & Housing) by the student and is approved and executed by Residence Life & Housing. This Contract is not a residential lease.
B. CONTRACT PERIOD. Except as otherwise agreed upon in writing, signed by both Parties, and subject to earlier cancellation as provided herein, the term of this Contract shall be the entire academic year set forth in the title of this Contract. All students must completely check out of their space by noon the day after their last scheduled examination or noon on the day the residences close, except those graduating seniors who have spring housing will be permitted to stay in residence until 8:00 pm the day of commencement.
C. BREAK PERIODS. Residences are closed during break periods (Christmas/Semester Break, and Spring Break) unless otherwise communicated.
D. DATES. Applicable dates for this Contract Period (such as when students may move in, when the residences close, and when break periods occur) may be found on the Loyola University Maryland Residence Life & Housing website and are subject to change from time to time for public health, safety, or other legitimate reasons.
E. EARLY ARRIVALS. Requests for early arrivals are discouraged unless extenuating circumstances necessitate additional move-in time, or the student is a part of an approved University program. Early arrivals must be approved by Residence Life & Housing. An additional per-day charge will be assessed for early occupancy.
F. CONTRACT EXTENSIONS. Contract extensions may be granted upon approval by Residence Life & Housing in response to a Student's written request that complies with the procedures established by Residence Life & Housing and the Residence Hall Policies and Procedures in the Loyola University Community Standards handbook. The student will be responsible for the payment of additional fees that apply for such extensions.

3. TERMS
A. APPLICATION. Students must submit a completed Housing Application to Residence Life & Housing along with this Contract.
B. ROOM AND BOARD FEES. The student agrees to pay the University occupancy fees at the applicable Room and Board Rates, which may be found on the Tuition, Fees, Room, and Board webpage of the Loyola University Maryland website. In return, the University grants the student permission (license) to occupy an assigned residence in Loyola University Residences during the Contract Period.

It is encouraged that you share with your family that you signed a housing contract with the University and intend to live on campus for the 24-25 Academic Year.

Enter your student number below to sign your contract.

ID Number

You must enter your 7 digit ID number. Please do not include the 0s unless you do not have 7 numbers. For example if your ID card says 001234567 only type in 1234567.

TOP TEN THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THE HOUSING CONTRACT

- 1 You are agreeing to live in housing for the full Academic Year (August- May).
- 2 If your housing needs to change, you must request to cancel your housing before June 1 to avoid penalties.
- 3 You must be registered for at least 12 credits by the start of the semester to move in and no later than the end of Add/Drop to remain in campus housing.
- 4 Students requesting accommodations for a disability, must do so by July 1. After the deadline accommodations will be provided based on space availability.
- 5 All students are required to have a meal plan.
- 6 The housing contract goes into effect once it is signed.
- 7 By agreeing to the housing contract, students are also agreeing to the Loyola University Community Standards.
- 8 The University reserves the right to select the specific bedroom and building to be assigned to a student, to assign other occupants to the unit, and to move a student to another bedroom or unit, at any time, in the University's sole and absolute discretion.
- 9 Students with a need to remain on campus during University break periods must agree to complete a housing break extension request. Additional fees may apply.
- 10 A copy of the housing contract is available on the Residence Life & Housing website and can be downloaded from the housing application.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Terms and Conditions of the Housing Contract occur after students submit their signed contract. Once signed, students enter into a legally binding contract for the full academic year. We highly suggest that students and their families read the terms and conditions to fully understand our expectations. Copies of the contract are available for download in the housing application or on the Residence Life & Housing website.

CANCELLATION DATES

If you need to cancel your housing, please submit a request to Residence Life & Housing on RoomRez. The Cancellation Request can be found under “Off Campus Forms.” Be aware that submitting a request is not an automatic approval. You will be notified via email once a decision is made. Loyola University highly recommends you do not sign an off-campus lease until you are officially notified of a decision.

If a contract Cancellation Request is received between June 1 and August 1 and approved, the advance payment and damage deposit will be forfeited, no cancellation fee will be assessed, and any other housing room charges billed under the contract will be refunded.

If a Contract Cancellation Request is received after August 1 and approved, the advance payment and the damage deposit will be forfeited, a $300 cancellation fee will be assessed, and any other housing room charges billed under this contract will be refunded.

SUBMIT ROOMMATE QUESTIONNAIRE

All students are required to submit their lifestyle/roommate answers. It would be best if you answered these honestly. Your answers will help Residence Life & Housing match you with an appropriate roommate. You still have the option to request a roommate

Roommate Questionnaire

Below is a series of questions relating to living with a roommate. Your responses are used to help identify potential well-matched roommates. It's very important to be honest when answering the questions...and be sure you as the student are responding.

Sharing

When it comes to sharing...:

Academics

How important are academics to you?:

If you would like, you can submit a brief bio about yourself for people to get to know you. The biography you write will be shown when searching for roommates on the "Roommate Request" pages. You will also create a screenname to help potential roommates search for you.

Web Screen Name: Students must create a web screen name, or username, that can be given to other students when they are searching the database to add students to their roommate group. Make sure you provide this screen name to your group leader creating the roommate group.

Personal Bio Residents have the option to write a personal bio that will be displayed during the roommate search phase of housing selection. Your personal bio is an opportunity to share information about yourself and what you're looking for in your roommate experience. Below are a few suggestions for what you may want to include:

- Brief Bio-Where are you from? What is your major? Why did you choose to attend Loyola University?
- Personality-How would your friends and/or family describe you?
- Interests, hobbies and activities-What do you enjoy doing in your free time?
- Entertainment-What types of music do you like? Favorite TV shows and/or movies? Favorite authors/books?

The personal bio is optional. You can leave it blank or you can enter 3-5 sentences that can be viewed by others as they browse potential roommates. Your bio can also be viewed when you are matched with a roommate.

Intentional Living Communities

Intentional Living Communities are residence hall communities that are formed around a selected topic, interest, or purpose. The mission and goals for the community are developed and operationalized by students with the support of the Office of Student Life and a faculty, staff, or administrator advisor.

Intentional Living Communities are built for Loyola students who are looking for a more targeted living environment where their roommates and neighbors hold shared interests and goals. Members of Intentional Living Communities are expected to be active contributors to the community who co-create expectations, norms, and opportunities for connection.

For the 2024-2025 Academic Year, the following ILC is being offered:

- Black & Grey Community – Lange Court

If you are interested in applying to live in an Intentional Living Community for the 2024-2025 Academic Year, please select the community from the dropdown and answer the corresponding questions. If you are not interested, please hit "Save and Continue"

Black & Grey Community

This community will seek to promote and support students of color at Loyola University Maryland. Through this intentional living community the "Black and Grey" community will create a safe and comfortable living space for students of color to create community and foster a sense of belonging.

The deadline for new accommodation requests is July 1, 2024. Visit the DAS website to learn more about the accommodation process.

HOW DOES LIVING WITH FAMILY AFFECT MY FINANCIAL AID?

Your award considers whether you will be living on-campus or commuting based on the information provided to Residence Life & Housing and your FAFSA. Your award indicates your housing status; if your housing plans change you must notify Financial Aid at financialaid@loyola.edu as it may impact your aid.

COMMUTING FROM HOME & LIVING WITH FAMILY

Students planning to live at home must confirm their intent and submit the "living off campus" page.

COMMUTING TO LOYOLA

All students are required to complete the Residency Intent in the housing application. If you plan to commute to Loyola, you will be required to:

- Confirm your personal information
- Update your Emergency Contact Information
- Update your Missing Person Contact
- Complete your Intent To Live on Campus
- Complete the Living Off-Campus page

CONFIRM YOUR ADDRESS

Undergraduate students not living on campus must register or confirm their local address before starting classes. The address collection process takes place over the summer, and all students without on-campus housing will receive information via email regarding this process.

COMMUNITY STANDARDS

The Community Standards still apply to students when not on Loyola's campus. Further, Loyola has a specific set of standards for off-campus students. Information about off-campus policies and expectations can be found in the off-campus policies section in the Community Standards.
